

The Hershey Company

2015 Annual Report of Lobbying and Advocacy Expenditures

March 14, 2016

This report contains a summary of expenditures made by The Hershey Company (Company) in 2015 on account of lobbying and advocacy initiatives that are important to the Company and its stockholders. We have disclosed these expenditures because we believe it is important that stockholders know how Company funds are used to lobby for and advocate issues important to the future growth and prosperity of the Company.

Our Policy On Political Advocacy

We do not contribute Company funds, directly or indirectly, to candidates for public office or campaigns for political office. This policy is set forth in our Code of Ethical Business Conduct, available for viewing on this website. Company funds are used to support or advocate issues, legislation or referenda of importance to the Company and our stockholders. These funds, classified under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (Code) as non-deductible lobbying expenditures, are paid primarily to industry trade associations, lobbying entities and our internal government relations personnel.
