

Gossner Foods Voluntarily Recalls Hershey's Brand Strawberry Flavored Milk Due To Possible Curdling

Logan, Utah – Gossner Foods, a manufacturer of shelf stable dairy products, is voluntarily recalling a single production run of HERSHEY'S 8 oz. 2% Reduced Fat Strawberry Flavored Shelf Stable Grade A Milk due to product curdling. The product does not pose a safety risk. However, the experience does not meet Gossner's high-quality standards.

Gossner is voluntarily recalling this specific manufacturing run after receiving a small number of reports that these products have curdled. Some consumers have reported curdling prior to the expiration date printed on the product.

The recalled milk products are limited to 8 oz. aseptic cartons of strawberry flavored milk sold in singles and three-packs primarily at grocery stores and foodservice channels. The product is manufactured and distributed by Gossner Foods based in Logan, Utah, under a licensing agreement with The Hershey Company.

The products were sold in the following states:

- California
- Connecticut
- Illinois
- Maryland
- Massachusetts
- Mississippi
- New Jersey
- New York
- North Carolina
- Pennsylvania
- Texas
- Wisconsin

The recalled product was manufactured September 23 and 24, 2018, with "Best Used By" dates of 23 OCT 2019 or 24 OCT 2019 and product codes of K-2668C2 or K-2678C1. The Best Used By and code dates are printed on the top of the single serve cartons. Only products manufactured on these specific code dates are affected.

Any consumers with the impacted products should call Gossner Customer Relations at 1-800-944-0454 Monday – Friday 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. Mountain Standard Time.
